"Confidential"

N^o 129.

Paris March 25th 1862.

Sir.

Your Dispatches Nos 118,

119 & 120 were received by me on the 21st inst. and yet the contents of

Receipt of Dispatch

118 & 120 have not up to this date

been communicated to Mr. Howe-

-wells. This is owing to the fact that I received notice on Sunday last that he would not receive until Friday next and I did not feel that the dispatches were of a nature to justify a call for a special interview.

In the meantime the Comper-on without application on my part,

by a note from his Chamberlain, signified to me that he would receive

Excellency

me
